“Few writers have made such a splash with their first appearance in Analog, and even fewer have so successfully sustained their initial popularity—for good reason, as you'll see in these stories.”

I REMEMBER THE FUTURE:
THE AWARD-NOMINATED STORIES OF MICHAEL A. BURSTEIN

Do you remember when
...scientists in parallel universes completed each other's experiments?
...virtual reality school systems brought equal opportunity to (almost) all children?
...the last Holocaust survivor left his memories recorded for the world?
...legendary writers of science fiction talked to their fans from beyond the grave?

The thirteen award-nominated stories in this collection (including ten Hugo nominees and three Nebula nominees from the Campbell Award-winning writer) will bring those memories of the future flooding back. Two new stories and all-new afterwords enliven the past with a touch of the present and that which is yet to come.
